Teaching Institute Travel Awards

The SRCD Teaching Committee is pleased to announce that a limited number of travel awards are available to support SRCD members who would like to attend the 2017 Teaching Institute. The $500 award will help offset the registration and accommodation expenses involved in attending the SRCD Developmental Science Teaching Institute pre-conference. We are interested in supporting a diverse group of teachers who would otherwise be unable to attend the Teaching Institute, and encourage all SRCD members who are faculty at any career stage from both 2- and 4-year colleges to apply. Applicants who have not attended a Teaching Institute in the past six years, and those who receive limited support from their home institutions, will receive priority consideration.

Applicants must be current members of SRCD, and maintain their membership through the end of the SRCD conference in April 2017. Awards will be distributed at the Teaching Institute. The awards should be used for expenses related to attending the Teaching Institute, as determined by the recipient. No receipts will be required.

Candidates who wish to apply will provide the following:

1. Year became an SRCD member
2. Years of teaching, teaching load, and type of institution
3. Previously attended Teaching Institutes (if any)
4. Statement of financial need that includes the approximated travel costs to attend the Teaching Institute as well as the support from institutional or other sources.
5. Impact statement that discuss the expected value attending the Teaching Institute will have on his or her teaching and professional development objectives.

Submission Deadline: Monday, December 5, 2016, 11:59PM EST
